DEHYDRATED PRODUCTS

GLOBAL OPPORTUNITY

The growing consumer concern for a healthier lifestyle creates challenges, but also new opportunities for the food and beverage industry. Among different possibilities, the inclusion of fruits and vegetables in the formulations becomes a great opportunity, with consumer's recognition, besides to add value to the final product.

With almost 100 years of expertise in the market, we supply a wide portfolio of dehydrated fruits and vegetables. With different technologies and methods of extraction and drying, which preserve active ingredients and nutritional and aromatic components, our portfolio contains dehydrated products in powder, flakes and pieces.

MAIN APPLICATIONS

FOOD

Cereals, Supplements, Biscuits, Cereal Bars, Fillings and Toppings, Bakery and Soups

BEVERAGE

Functional Beverages, Juices, Concentrated Beverages and Isotonic

DAIRY

Yoghurts, Smoothies and Ice Cream

NUTRACEUTICALS

Capsules

OUR TECHNOLOGIES

We operate with three specific drying technologies that guarantee dehydrated ingredients with nutritional components.

Spray Dryer

For a fine powder with good solubility, with little or no evidence in the final product, dehydration is made by the Spray Dryer process.

Drum Dryer

For fine or flaky flakes with intermediate solubility and some presence in the final product, dehydration is made by the Drum Dryer process.

Vaccum Dryer

For a granulated or shattered flake, with low solubility, slow rehydration and great presence in the final product, dehydration is done by the Vaccum Dryer process.

DESIGNED BY NATURE

We were born amidst the diversity of the world's largest biome and, driven by a passion for the food universe, we bring authentic ingredients that establish harmonious connections for all human senses and the stories that nature, our greatest inspiration, has to tell.

Besides flavors, plant extracts and dehydrated ingredients, since 1925 we have invested responsibly in the development of products that make food and beverage brands around the world generators of positively, remarkable sensory experiences, based on the natural concept. Simple, distinct and flavorful.

That is the Duas Rodas' DNA.
